DEPARTMENTAL CIRCULAR NO.176

Sub:- Discrepancies in submission of form 10D/10C in respect of FPF members.

Of late it has been observed that discrepancies as brought out in the list enclosed results in referring back the cases by RPFC to us and ultimately cause hardship to the employees. It is, therefore, utmost necessary to take due care while filling and submitting form no. 10D/10C.

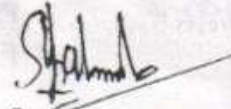

The reasons attributable to the delay in settlement are summarized as under:

1. Improper documents.
2. Unwanted voluminous documents.
3. Improper bifurcation of the salary paid in lump sump. It should be on due base & not on paid base.
4. In the case of more than two wives, it is necessary to give the name of the first wife according to the seniority of marriage and as recorded for giving benefits available to the family.
5. In correct Account number of the member mentioned in form 10-D.
6. For claiming family pension benefit, succession certificate is required where the unmarried member died while in service/ away from service and there is no nomination or no parents alive. In such a case, to decide the benefit payable & to whom payable, such certificate is required.

The list indicating documents to be enclosed with form 10-D, 10-C and for withdrawal benefit is also enclosed.

The officer in charge are requested to take note of requirements to obviate possibility of back query and to provide better service to FPF members.
